

GreenMan®

Variety	Negro Amaro
Vintage	2010
Italian Growing Areas	This pan-southern Italian grape is grown mainly in Puglia, in the southern Salento where about 30,000 hectares are planted.
Australian Vineyard Location	Central Victoria The vineyard is located in foothills on the northern side of the Great Dividing Range, on Mt. Samaria, Central Victoria. The secluded vineyard is enclosed on three sides by state park and private forest.
Harvest Date	April 23rd 2010
Winemaking	The grapes received punchon all natural vat fermentation and then transferred to old oak barriques for 18 months and in bottles for 18 months
Oenological Data	Harvest Baume - 12.5 Total Acidity - 7.2g/l pH - 3.36 Alcohol - 13% alc/vol

Tasting Notes

Colour	Light garnet/red, clear colour.
Aroma	Spicy, dried fruits and berries.
Palate	Elegant, savoury, dried fruits.
Cellaring Potential	Enjoy now and until 2014.

